Julie Austin's Children's Recordings

Julie Austin is a dynamic, energetic performer with over twenty years experience playing concerts, giving keynote presentations and workshops, leading thousands of preschool musical circle times and conducting trainings for teachers, administrators and parents. She has a Masters degree in Early Childhood Education and a Bachelors degree in Musical Performance. Julie is a National Wolf Trap Master Artist and has worked extensively with the High/Scope Research Foundation as a teacher trainer. She has presented nationally and internationally for over twenty years.

Julie has made several award winning children's recordings including "Fandagumbo," a Parent's Choice Award Winner. She sings and accompanies herself on guitar, autoharp, jaw harp, recorders, ukulele and even the nose flute! Her warmth and sense of humor as well as her expertise in both music and early childhood make her a favorite of audiences everywhere. Julie Austin's music is guaranteed to have your toes tapping, your hands clapping, rocking and singing!
