```
 E          A       E
Everybody says hello

                     B7      E    B7
They say hello, hello, hello

 E          A       E
Everybody says hello

                     B7      E
They say hello, hello, hello

CHORUS
 A                                E
That's how they do it, they just get to it

      B7                                 E
They open up their mouths and they say hello

 A                                E
That's how they do it, they just get to it

      B7                                 E
They open up their mouths and they say hello

 A                 E
La la la la la, la la la la la

B7                    E
La la la la la la, la la la  (repeat la la's)

Everybody waves hello . . .

Everybody shakes a hand hello . . .
