CHORUS:

^E Mud! ^A Mud! ^E I love mud!

I'm absolutely, positively wild about mud. ^{F#7} ^{B7}

You can't go around it, you got to go through it, ^E ^{E7} ^A ^{F#7}
^A Beautiful, ^{B7} fabulous, ^C super-duper ^D mud. ^E

^E 1. Little Jimmy White, ^A he was mighty ^E clean,
Went swimmin' in a pool of mud, he made quite a scene. ^D ^{B7}
He started with the backstroke, followed by the crawl. ^A ^E
You should have seen him swimmin' when he heard his ^{F#7} ^{B7} father call:

"JIMMY, GET OUT OF THE MUD RIGHT NOW!"

CHORUS

2. Little Susie-Q, she rode her bike to school,
She rode right through a puddle, but it really was a pool.
She sunk up to her tires, and then up to her ears,
And nobody's seen her now for ninety-seven years.

CHORUS

3. Well, little Clarabelle, she was only three,
Was workin' in the mud on her favorite recipe,
With sticks and stones and sour milk, it looked like
p; brown ice cream,
But when she started eating it, she heard her father
scream:

"CLARA, DON'T PUT THAT IN YOUR MOUTH!"

CHORUS

4. Now we would be the last to tell you what to do,
But when it comes to mud, you know it's really up to you.
So if you can't decide and you're sittin' on the fence,
The only thing that we can say is, use you common sense . .

("JUMP RIGHT IN!")
